ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

LORI SMOOT

"Lori Smoot grew up in North Carolina and received her Bachelors of Fine Art at Columbus College of Art and Design in Columbus, OH. She has a partial masters degree in Christian Ethics from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, NC. She has been married to her husband, Jay, for 12 years and they have four children: Roman (10), Isabel (8), Clara (6), and Thelo (3). They have lived in a variety of locations in NC and have served overseas as missionaries in India and South Africa. Her youngest child has serious medical needs, requiring the family to leave the foreign mission field and indefinitely return to the US. They currently live in Zebulon, NC in a home provided by a local church where Lori serves as assistant women's ministry leader. She also homeschools her children, occasionally has opportunities to make art, and relishes any opportunity she gets to share the Good News of Jesus Christ and stories of God's faithfulness in her own life."

CAMP MISSIONARIES

THE WILSON'S

Our missionaries, Brett and Sara Wilson have grown up here in southern Ohio all their life and have always seemed to have a passion for missions and Mt. Hope Bible Camp. As a family, they have committed to serving the Lord in full-time ministry as directors of Mt. Hope Bible Camp, but in order for this to happen, they need individuals and churches to agree to join their support team by giving financially. Will you join their team? To begin supporting the Wilson's, please tear off and return the card to InFaith with your monthly gift.
